

Questions for Lecture 10

While reading Chapter 3.4–3.6 of [HRSW], ask yourself:

- How do we get from the abstract variational formulation to actual computations?
- What do we mean by stability? Why is it important to ensure?
- How fast does the finite element method converge? What does it require?